07 Days - 06 Overnights

Day 1: Amman Airport - Amman Hotel

Upon your arrival to Amman, you will be met and greeted at Amman Queen Alia international airport. The driver will transfer you to your hotel in Amman, the rest of the day is at leisure. Overnight in Amman.

Day 2: Amman City Tour - Desert Castles - Amman

Breakfast. Transfer to visit King's Abdullah Mosque, located in El-Abdali district was completed in 1990 as a memorial to the late King Hussein's Grandfather. The beautiful and instantly recognizable Blue Dome Mosque is worth a quick look inside. Women will be asked to wear an Abaya (gown) and cover their hair. The Islamic Museum, with a collection of pottery and photographs of His Majesty King Abdullah 1st, is located inside the mosque, then transfer to visit Amman's downtown market and city centre, it's traditional souks, coffee shops, restaurants selling local food and sweets, churches and mosques amongst other popular places. Amman is also the ancient city of Philadelphia with its Roman Theatre and many other monuments such as the Citadel. Visit Jordan River Foundation. and the soap house, Continue your visit to the Desert Castles (Qasr el Kharaneh, Qasr Amra and Qasr el Azraq), located east of Amman, which are beautiful examples of early Islamic art and architecture. Return to your hotel in Amman. Overnight in Amman.

Day 3: Amman - Jerash - Ajloun - Dead Sea

Breakfast. Transfer to up north to visit Jerash, wander among the original temples, theatres, plazas, paths and colonnaded streets, all enclosed within the remaining city walls. Within the city walls have been found the remains of settlements dating from the Bronze Age, the Iron Age, the Hellenistic, Roman, Byzantine, Umayyad and Abbasid periods, indicating human occupation at this location for more than 2,500 years. Continue to visit Ajloun Castle overlooking the Jordan Valley, and then drive through the Jordan Valley to the Dead Sea which sits 400 meters below sea level.

The Dead Sea is one of the most incredible places in the world. It is known for the Biblical story of the destruction of Sodom and Amora, which was turned into salt. The Dead Sea speaks for itself; there is no living fish! It is by far one of Jordan's most impressive and spectacular places to visit. Its calm shining water glowing from its scorching sun above, is known for the concentration of salt and minerals which makes it a therapeutic as well as a unique swimming experience not to be missed. Overnight at the Dead Sea.
